The Rule of God’s Anointed

2

Psalms 2

- Man’s rebellion (1-3)
- God’ reply (4-6)
- The divine plan (7-9)
- Admonition (10-12)

3

Scene 1: Man’s Rebellion (1-3)

- People will not overthrow God’s purposes, so the faithful trust in the Lord.

Psalms 2:1-3, “Why do the nations rage, and the peoples meditate a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against Jehovah, and against his anointed, (saying), Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us.”

- The Psalmist clearly indicates in these opening rhetorical questions that their plotting and scheming are a vain thing (riq – reek). A single word that means a worthless thing; to no purpose; empty.
- Psalms 94:16-19
 - The gospel versus the wisdom of men.
1 Corinthians 1:18-25
 - False doctrines versus truth. John 8:31-32

Scene 2: God's reply (4-6)

- Men's corrupt laws hasten God's day of wrath.

Psalms 2:4-5, "He that sitteth in the heavens will laugh: (cf. Ezekiel 18:23, 32) the Lord will have them in derision. Then will he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure."

- God is sovereign – His will and purposes cannot be thwarted – (Psalms 11:4; 37:13; 68:33; 115:3; Isaiah 40:22; 57:15; 66:1; Acts 5:38,39; Galatians 6:7-9; Jude 18; 2 Peter 3:3-10).
- Historically – all who have rejected God's will have perished – (Genesis 6,7; Exodus 14:27-31; 2 Peter 2:4-8; 3:6-8; Matthew 24)
